

Y.C.M.A. PLANS FOR THE SEASON ARE ANNOUNCED

PROSPECTUS ISSUED BY SECRETARY HAS BEEN APPROVED BY BOARD.

FOR INCREASED ACTIVITIES

More Work Will Be Undertaken In Every Branch Than Ever Before.

General Secretary E. T. Bailey of the Y. M. C. A. this morning announced the policy for the association work for the coming winter, as adopted by the board of directors at recent meetings; and the plans for the season indicate that the association will undertake more work for the young men of the community than ever before. The prospectus for the year is as follows:

Y. M. C. A. Activities.

With one of the largest memberships the association has enjoyed every department of the work looks most hopeful for the best year's work thus far in the association history.

The campaign of over a year ago made the house committee able to have many necessary repairs done and the building had had a thorough cleaning and has been painted throughout. New heating apparatus for hot water has been installed with a large capacity and various other necessary changes have been made during the past summer.

Religious Department.

In the religious department of the work plans for more aggressive Bible study and the like have been outlined and it is the hope of the committee to have at least six classes in the building, instead of three. One class of an extension nature at least. The Association will co-operate with the Community Training school, inasmuch as the classes will be held in the building on Tuesday nights and the General Secretary will be one of the teachers.

On Sunday afternoons there will be meetings for men occasionally and for boys and young men every Sunday afternoon. The religious work for boys and young men will be the special plan of the religious committee.

In the Bible classes the goal is for 150 men and boys enrolled. The association will observe the week of prayer in some special way, and the Men's Bible class will resume its work in about two months.

Church co-operation with the various churches in the city and county will be as usual, more definite work by the evangelistic hand than before.

Physical Department.

In the physical department plans were never better for larger and more exciting times. One new class, has been organized making eighteen classes per week. Physical Director Major will grade the work this year and at the end of the season there will be a contest for a medal on form and ability.

Already 11 men are out for the basketball team and aside from the representative team of the association a first class league will be organized for each division, Young Men, Intermediates, Juniors and Boys.

It is hoped that there will be a city league organized in indoor baseball, playing weekly at the association, and already the Grand Detour Plow shops, Brunswicks and "Y" teams have been started. Hand ball will be one of the individual

FRANTIC MOTHER SEES TWO YEAR OLD BABE SWEEPED TO DEATH IN FOX RIVER AT AURORA

Aurora, Oct. 1.—A little baby boy of two years, his hair flying in the wind as he ran and shouted in the joy of play toddled out of his back yard in South River street into the river yesterday and was swept away. A cry of terror from a small sister who was playing with the little one, brought the wildly alarmed mother, Mrs. Joseph Uza to the river bank just in time to see her baby's hand flutter above the water before he was carried down stream to death.

PROSECUTION GET PETRAS CONFUSED IN EXAMINATION

STATE QUICK TO SEIZE CHANCE TO REFUTE EVIDENCE GIVEN BY YOUNG PRISONER.

RUSH LINEMEN FROM AURORA

Effort To Be Made to Impeach Testimony—Petras Admits Error of Distance.

Geneva, Oct. 1.—Three Aurora city linemen were rushed to Geneva on Thursday to refute testimony given on the witness stand by Anton Petras on trial for the murder of Theresa Hollander.

On the witness stand Petras swore that he was taken from his cell in the city jail on the day after his arrest to the police barn in the rear of the city hall. He was forced to stand in line there with four uniformed policemen, he said, while Walter Hickman was asked to pick out the man who got off the car with him on the night of the Holland murder at Indiana avenue. This enabled Hickman to pick him out as the man on the car with the Hollander girl the last time she was seen alive.

The four men hurried to Geneva to refute the testimony of Petras as Peter Wagner, assistant city electrician.

Samuel Galley, a city lineman. John Smith, a city lineman. Mathew Weis, police chauffeur.

"I had on my sweater and my slippers when they took me out of my cell," Petras said. "They took me out to the police barn and stood me up with four policemen in uniforms. Hickman then came out and identified me. I called him a liar."

"What did you call him a liar for?" Attorney Gursul asked his witness.

"Because he is a liar," Petras answered.

Wagner, Galley, Smith and Weis, all in citizens' clothes, were the men who were stood in a row with Petras the police claim. The prosecution hopes to show by the testimony of the four witnesses hurried to Geneva that Petras deliberately lied when he swore that the men who stood with him were policemen in uniform.

Joslyn Cross-Examines.

Assistant Prosecutor Joslyn began a severe cross examination of Petras just before noon and all Thursday forenoon the prisoner was still on the stand, squirming under the rapid fire of questions shot at him by the unmerciful assistant prosecutor.

TEACHERS' CLASS MEETS MONDAY

E. T. Bailey, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. announced this morning that meetings of the Interdenominational Teachers' Training class, to which every Sunday school teacher in the city is invited, will be resumed at the association building next Monday evening. Last winter this class proved of especial benefit to the teachers and it is expected its value and influence will be more fully appreciated during the coming season.

DIXON QUARTETTE WILL SING.

One of the biggest features of the Progressive rally at Lee Center tonight will be the singing by the Dixie Quartette, an organization of Dixon young men who are becoming noted for their musical ability. The quartette is composed of Harry Jones, first soprano; Carl Hess, baritone; Glenn Burrs, base, and Fred Cheney, tenor. All of them have excellent voices which blend well, making the quartette's singing distinctly of a high order.

For a moment the mother stood benumbed looking fascinatedly down the river at the spot where her wee one had been sucked under. Then realizing, she screamed and dashed into the stream to fight with it for her child. She thought she saw the little fellow's dress 100 feet ahead of her and pursued the will-o-the-wisp through the water with the furious energy of a person mad, but she never saw her child again.

ARMISTICE IS PROCLAIMED IN MEXICAN FIGHT

GENERAL VILLA'S SECRETARY NOTIFIES ASSOCIATED PRESS OF ACTION.

WILL HOLD ELECTIONS OCT. 5

Says Elections Will Be Conducted October 5 to 10, According to First Agreement.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 1.—General Villa's secretary has telegraphed the Associated Press that an armistice has been proclaimed throughout Mexico with Aguas Calientes as a neutral zone; and that the elections will be held according to the first agreement, on Oct. 5 to 10.

Villa at Zacarias met a commission headed by General Hey and the meeting aroused hope for a happy outcome. After the conference Villa went to Aguas Calientes to confer with General Obregon and other Carranza leaders.

OUTLOOK GOOD.

Washington, Oct. 1.—President Wilson today said the outlook for peace in Mexico is good.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Carranza will let the constitutional convention scheduled to meet in Mexico City decide whether he is to retire to private life or lead the fight against Villa, according to statement issued by the constitutionalist first chief, given out at the agency here.

Carranza has authorized the agency to announce that his resignation as the leader of the constitutionalist movement and head of the present government in Mexico will go before the convention today. Should the convention of constitutionalist chiefs accept it, Carranza announces that he will retire to private life at once. Should they refuse it, he will lead the forces at his disposal to combat with what he terms "the new reactionary movement" led by Villa.

Not Party to Torreon Agreement.

Carranza, in his communication to Washington, states that the so-called Torreon agreement, with the violation of which he is charged by the Villistas, was never binding upon him in its proposed covenants. He asserts that he never gave to the terms of the Torreon agreement his approval and that it was understood by the parties to that agreement that it was to have no force unless sanctioned by Carranza.

Carranza announced that he is opposed to the outline of a provisional government that Villa has demanded that he accept.

Peace Commission to Meet.

A peace commission has been sent forth to treat with General Villa, according to Carranza's statement. This peace commission, it is understood, will meet Villa or his representative at Aguas Calientes.

HAVE BABY GIRL.

Attorney and Mrs. Harry C. Warner of this city are the proud parents of a pretty baby girl born yesterday afternoon at Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital.

HORSE AND AUTO IN COLLISION ON BRIDGE

RUBENSTEIN'S BIG HORSE ATTEMPTS TO TAKE WHEEL OFF AUTOMOBILE.

WAS A LUCKY ACCIDENT

That Parties Involved Were Not Injured Is Considered Miraculous.

Mike Meloskey, an employee of an Rubenstein, was slightly injured and an automobile owned by tourists was damaged on the Galena avenue bridge shortly after 7 o'clock this morning; and that the results of the mad flight of Rubenstein's big horse were not more serious is indeed miraculous.

Meloskey, when he left Rubenstein's barn, neglected to fasten the holdbacks, and as the animal started down the Galena avenue hill the heavy wagon pushed forward, frightening the horse and caused it to run madly down the incline.

As the driver started to guide the runaway around a vehicle on the bridge an automobile coming from the north turned into the open space, and with a crash that caused apprehension among the many pedestrians on the bridge, the two vehicles came together. Meloskey was thrown clear over the automobile onto the walk, and for a time it was feared that he was badly hurt; but investigation showed that aside from a few bruises and a shaking up he was uninjured. The horse also escaped with a few cuts and scratches; while the lamps, fender and one wheel of the automobile were damaged. The auto was repaired at a local garage and the tourists continued their journey.

ROSECRANS WON NOMINATION FOR CIRCUIT CLERK

ASHTON MAN DEFEATED FIELD FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION WEDNESDAY.

KENT AND PRESTON CLOSE

Vote Was Very Light—Progressives Polled Less Than Hundred Votes.

Edward S. Rosecrans of Ashton won the race for the Republican nomination for circuit clerk at the special primary election held in this county yesterday. His plurality was 255. W. G. Kent of Dixon ran second and W. Frank Preston of South Dixon ran third and was only a few votes behind Kent. Kinzie Ostewig of Lee received only 139 votes.

Mr. Rosecrans made an exceptionally commendable race, for until his announcement as a candidate a few weeks ago he had been unknown politically in Lee county, although he was well known and greatly admired in his own part of the county, as the splendid vote given him in Ashton testified. Ashton gave Rosecrans 221 votes and there were only ten other votes cast on the republican ticket in that township. It is seen that his own home people are behind him in a body.

Rosecrans even carried two Dixon

Mr. Evenson, the new agent, took charge of the office today, arriving here last night with the company and others, who have today checked him in.

SEMINARY GIRLS IN EXCELLENT PROGRAM

PATRONS OF Y. M. C. A. COURSE PLEASED WITH THE FIRST ENTERTAINMENT.

The first number of the Y. M. C. A. entertainment course, given at the Family theater Wednesday evening by the Seminary Girls, was certainly worthy the many words of praise which have been spoken and written of the clever young ladies. An audience which filled the theater to capacity enjoyed every number of their excellent musical program and applauded in a manner which showed that the talent of the three entertainers was appreciated.

Because of the non-arrival of the special pictures which had been ordered by the association committee, it was necessary to use pictures which were in stock at the theater; and for this unavoidable disappointment the association expresses regret.

REPAIRING POOR ROADWAY ON HENNEPIN AVENUE NEAR HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

After two years of endeavor to have the roadway on Hennepin avenue between Fourth and Fifth streets repaired by the manufacturers of "Tarvia" a compound which was used in building the street and which proved unsatisfactory, work was today commenced on the repair work. The Tarvia company has donated the compound for the repair work and will pay the cost of the work, the city furnishing the crushed rock.

It is planned to give the street two dressings of crushed rock and Tarvia, each dressing to be about two inches in thickness and thoroughly rolled; the Tarvia being applied under direction of an expert from the manufacturers.

PARDON HEAD WARNS BREAKERS OF PAROLE

Men Returned to Joliet Must Serve Maximum Term.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 1.—Lewis G. Stevenson, chairman of the state board of pardons, in session at the Illinois state penitentiary, has announced that in the future all convicts returned to the state institution for violation of parole will be compelled to serve the maximum sentence for the crime for which they were convicted.

"This rule will be as unchangeable as the law of the Medes and Persians," states Mr. Stevenson.

The records of the Illinois state penitentiary, said Chairman Stevenson, "show that more than 85 per cent of the paroled men make good, and we have adopted the rule of a maximum sentence for violators in an effort to increase this percentage."

"In addition to the new rule imposing a maximum sentence on violators we have come to the determination that no man will be paroled to the city of Chicago in the future. The temptation there is too great. The paroled men shall be kept away from liquor, and it will be seen that they go out into the country, where they will meet conditions which will assist them in making good. Warden Allen, with his honor camps, is showing what can be done as a result of fresh air and life in the open, and we want all paroled men to follow along this line."

BRUSSELS IS FACING FAMINE

Workingmen Near Revolt; Germans Can't Feed 180,000 Persons in City.

London, Oct. 1.—The scarcity of food in Brussels has raised a grave problem, according to R. C. Hawkins, who has just returned from Belgium, where he completed arrangements to transfer a number of wounded Belgian soldiers to England.

"The situation in Brussels is one of great uncertainty," said Mr. Hawkins. "There is the gravest danger of starvation. Food is scarce and 180,000 people are applying for rations, which the German administration is finding it difficult to supply. There is the further danger that the workingmen of the city may rise in revolt."

FIND BLOODSTAINED DRESS

But Proponents of Holocaust Crime Discovers Little Else Suspicious.

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 1.—Spurred by the discovery of a dress believed blood stained, which had been worn by Mrs. Dessie Stone, who, with her four children, perished in their burning home, Champaign county officials strove unsuccessfully to learn more facts connected with the fire, from which Scott Stone, the husband and father, was the only member of the family to escape.

Mrs. Stone, until her marriage, was a resident of Poseyville, Ind. After a long inquest, proponents of the foul play theory were obliged to admit themselves defeated, at least, temporarily. The coroner's jury contended itself with a verdict simply reciting the death of the family.

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. P. W. LANSING, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

KILL! KILL! KILL! EPITOMIZES WAR

FIRST HAND ACCOUNTS SHOW AWFULNESS OF BATTLES BETWEEN EUROPEAN FOES.

DAYS THAT DEFY IMAGINATION

Sights in Battle of the Nations That Make Veteran Soldiers' Blood Run Cold.

The horrors of war are brought home strikingly to the reader of the newspapers in these days of stress abroad by means of many a personal narrative as thrilling as ever told by a star of fiction. These little stories recite deeds of dauntless courage and impress one with the correctness of General Sherman's famous definition of war.

"The statements of the wounded at Paris returning from the Aisne show the terrible nature of the fighting. All practical tell the same story," said one man.

"It began with heavy and accurate shell fire. There was a lunch interval. It stopped about 5:30 every day, and then in the night often came the charges. One night I couldn't count them. It was awful! KILL! KILL! KILL! And still they came on, shoving each other over on to us.

"There was no man but had his story of comrades shot on either side of him, of how they were smashed day after day, of the shriek of shells, of the perpetual groaning of the wounded as they lay in the wet trenches—seven days and nights of it and sometimes only an hour's sleep.

"Muddled to the eyes, wet, often blood caked, many were suffering from the curious aphasia produced by the continuous and terrible concussion of shells bursting. Some were dazed and speechless, some deafened, and yet spent to relate, I saw on no face the terrible animal war look."

"It was Horrible; It Was Ghastly."

The following epistle is from a German soldier of the 74th infantry regiment Tenth corps, to his wife:

"I have just been living through days that defy imagination. I should never have thought men could stand it. Not a second has passed but my life has been in danger.

"It was horrible. It was ghastly. But I have been saved for you and for our happiness, and I take heart again, although I am still terribly unnerved. God grant that I may see you again soon and that this horror may soon be over.

"None of us can do any more. Human strength is at an end."

The correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph at Rheims sends this interesting paragraph:

"In the doorway still stands the crippled beggar who has sought alms there for years. He maintained his post throughout the bombardment, and like a statue, he stands, covered with dust, pebbles and glass. The man was unharmed. He was crippled in the war of 1870."

Spellbound at Hero's Act.

The heroic self sacrifice of a soldier named Tresignies of the Second regiment, chasseurs a pied, has just been related. The Belgians were exceedingly anxious to get across the Willebroeck canal at Pont Brule, but a bridge had been raised against them on the other side by a strong force of Germans. Tresignies volunteered to swim across and try to lower the bridge. It meant certain death. Before he plunged in he wrote with a pencil on a scrap of paper the name and address of his wife and the simple words, "God will help and comfort you." The Germans were startled into admiration as he leaped into the stream and for a few moments held their fire; but seeing what he was about to accomplish, they riddled him with bullets just as he lowered the bridge.

As it fell into place with a crash the Belgians rushed across with shouts of triumph. Tresignies' body was buried with military honors.

A big London department store announced recently that any unmarried male employee between twenty and thirty-five who did not enlist would be dismissed after Sept. 12.

Some of the elevator attendants now are girls. They wear blue uniforms of a material not unlike that of overalls and seems to operate the cars quite as efficiently as the men.

PROSECUTION GETS PETRAS CONFUSED IN CROSS EXAMINATION

secutor. Several times Petras appeared to be confused and parts of his testimony differed to a marked degree from his sworn statement at the first trial.

Scored heavily.

The prosecution brought out a strong point on cross-examination when Petras was asked why he walked six blocks down town from the night school in an opposite direction from his home on the night of the murder to catch a street car in order to ride home. He had testified that he only had 10 cents and it was for that reason Petras told Fishbach he was not going down town. He thought Fishbach would ask him to go to a show and he would have to spend half of the money.

"You went down town to meet Theresa Hollander, not to catch a street car," the assistant prosecutor shouted at the witness in a voice that made the court ring.

"I did not," Petras answered.

"You could have walked two blocks over to Anderson street from the high school to get your New York street car instead of walking six blocks down town," the prosecutor said, the prosecutor shouted.

"I knew what time the car left down town and I did not know what time it left Anderson street," Petras answered.

"Didn't you know that it takes the car about five minutes to go from Fox street and Broadway to Anderson street?"

"No; I didn't know it."

"At the former trial you testified it was three blocks from the high school down town, didn't you?"

"Yes, I guess I did."

"Well, is it three blocks as you said at the former trial, or six blocks as you say now?"

"It is six blocks."

Judge Carnes would not allow Petras to answer any questions regarding his arrest in the old country on a charge of pandering.

"Did you ever write your name before the police in Vienna?" Assistant Prosecutor Joslyn asked Petras. Attorney Gursul objected and the objection was sustained.

"Did the Vienna police ever ask you to write your name?" Again the objection of the defense was sustained.

Under cross-examination of the assistant prosecutor Petras also said that he did ride past the place of employment of the Hollander girl and whistle at her. At the start he denied that he even owned a motorcycle at that time, but finally said he did own one and that he did try to attract the dead girl's attention at her window.

"My baby is very intelligent."

"How so?"

"She keeps examining her toes."

"How does that denote superior acumen?"

"Why, the intelligent child evidently realizes that one must have perfect toes if one proposes to tango creditably."

Italy Protests Indiscriminate Mining of Adriatic by Austria—Fishing Boat Reported Sunk—French Advance Guard Nears Belgian Border—Austrian War Ship Reported Sunk—Serbs Reoccupy Semlin.

AUSTRIAN GENERAL SUFFERING WITH CHOLERA

Paris, Oct. 1.—It has been officially announced by the Austro-Hungarian government, according to Rome dispatches, that Gen. Von Auffenberg, commanding the First Austrian army is suffering from cholera.

An Italian torpedo boat is reported to have been sunk by a mine between Venice and Comacchio, in the Adriatic sea. No confirmation of the report can be obtained.

An unconfirmed report has been received at Rome from Bari saying that two big Austrian war ships attempted to make a sortie from Cattaro yesterday, presumably with the idea of making a dash for Pola, where the main body of the Austrian fleet is reported to be under the protection of the land fortifications. The report says that the allied fleet pursued the two ships and destroyed one with a torpedo.

A dispatch received at Rome says that the Kaiser is very ill at Salsburg. Dispatches received last week told of an accident to the Kaiser on the front when he fell into a trench and he was reported to be suffering from inflammation of the lungs as a result.

A dispatch from Belgrade says the Serbians have re-occupied Semlin after desperate fighting, thus assuring the success of the offensive movement.

King Charles of Roumania has called for a special session of the cabinet to determine Roumania's attitude towards the war.

The war office at Tokio announces that a force has been landed from the Japanese fleet at Laoche harbor near Tsing-Tao and has occupied the harbor. The force took some four German field guns and left a detachment of the landing force to hold their position.

Paris, Oct. 1.—The official communique issued at 11:20 p. m. says: "The general situation is satisfactory. There has been no notable change on the front except in the region south of the Meuse, where we have occupied Seicheprey and forced our way as far as the heights of Rupt de Mad."

(Seicheprey is in the department of the Meurthe and Moselle. It is half way between Pont A Mousson and St. Mihiel and about fifteen miles from Toul.)

Paris, Oct. 1.—The official statements on the eighteenth day of the battle of the Aisne, extremely guarded though they are, give adequate reason for the belief, not only that the turning movement by the allies' left wing is continuing successfully, but that a similar action has developed on the extreme right.

The official bureau deviated slightly from its reticent course when it said that on the left wing, north of the Somme, "the action continues to develop rapidly more and more toward the north." To expectant Paris this is sufficient confirmation of the unofficial and vague report of the day before that the German right had been broken and that Von Kluck's great army was at last in retreat. Military experts take a less happy view of the situation, but all are confident that the time of German tenure of French soil is growing shorter by the hour.

The night communique explained a hint in the afternoon statement of an advance of the French right near St. Mihiel, on the east bank of the Meuse, where the Germans had concentrated after days of desperate effort. It showed that the German left had been pushed back nearer Pont A Mousson, where the crown prince had had his headquarters and that the German center would soon be in danger if the double enveloping tendency of the allies' attack was sustained.

"The general situation is satisfactory," a phrase that has not meant much to Frenchmen for several days, had considerable significance when it was pointed out that the actual situation was probably more favorable than the military authorities would admit and the facts were added to show that the Germans are being driven back, despite their tremendous efforts and the full play of their heavy artillery.

French Take St. Mihiel.
Paris, Oct. 1.—Beaten at every point of contact, the Germans are today fighting desperately to maintain their avenues of retreat to Belgium and Germany. The afternoon's war office statement says:

"On our left wing, north of the Somme, the action continues to develop more and more toward the north. Between the Oise and the Aisne the enemy has delivered a vigorous attack on Tracy-le-Mont. North-east of the forest of Aigue the Germans have been repulsed with heavy losses."

Battles in Woivre District.

"In the center there is relative calm along the entire front, which extends from Rheims to the Meuse. Between the Argonne and the Meuse we have made slight progress. In the Woivre district there have been severe battles. Our troops have advanced at several points, notably to the east of St. Mihiel."

"On our right wing in Lorraine and the Vosges, there has been no change."

French Near Belgian Border.

London, Oct. 1.—Advance guards of French troops reached Orchies, five miles from the Belgian border last Thursday, according to an official statement by the German general staff in Berlin received here by way of Amsterdam.

Orchies is near Valenciennes and the presence of the advance guard at that point indicates the development of a most important maneuver to cut off the German line of retreat in its entirety and to prevent the German occupation of Valenciennes.

The advance guard was of sufficient force to defeat a battalion of the German landwehr, which gave battle.

According to the German statement, French sharpshooters fired on the military hospital at Orchies, whereupon the Germans destroyed the town, an important center of 17,000 inhabitants.

Italy Protests Reckless Mining.

London, Oct. 1.—"As a result of the sinking of an Italian fishing boat near Ancona by an Austrian floating mine,"

MOST REMARKABLE QUARTETTE HERE

THE FERGUSONS AND DRUMMONDS MARRIED 58 YEARS AGO AT DOUBLE WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ferguson of Waterloo, Iowa, left this morning for Chicago to visit their daughter, after stopping off in Dixon for a few days to visit with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Drummond, of 1724 West Third street.

The Telegraph does not know of a more remarkable quartette than Lewis Drummond and Thomas Ferguson and their wives.

Each of the men is eighty years old and each of the wives is 78 years of age, and both couples were married fifty-eight years ago by the same minister and at the same time.

It is always considered remarkable when one married couple reach their golden wedding anniversary, but here are all the parties of a double wedding which occurred fifty-eight years ago in Dixon, all well and happy. Needless to say, it is a mighty happy reunion when the Drummonds and Fergusons visit each other.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

LOOK, MOTHER! IF TONGUE IS COATED GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out of sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrup. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

'Certainly the apprentice of ten years ago earned his little emblem with his experiences on board the old windjammers of the Monongahela and Constellation type, but do you not think that the apprentice seaman of to-day is worthy of the 'figure of eight' after he has won his 'cigarette mark.'"

"Surely after drilling a steady three or four months he has done pretty nearly the equal in manual and mental labor of the now past 'apprentice boy.' Besides this the apprentice mark makes the jumper look neater when worn on our blues." Correspondence of the Blue Jacket.

EDUCATION FOR THE HOMES.
"Send all the information you can to the mothers. We are 15 miles from a doctor. So many women die."
"Many women in this district live from 50 to 100 miles from a physician."
"We are 40 miles from town and need help for ourselves and our children."
"We are 28 miles from the nearest postoffice. We need help."
Appeals like these received by the Bureau of Education from thousands of women throughout the United States in the past year indicate the need which mothers especially in remote districts, feel for advice in the care and training of their children. In recognition of these needs the home-education division of the Bureau of Education has been established.
Its objects are: To help parents in the home education of their children with reference to health, games and play, early mental development and formation of moral habits; to interest boys and girls who have left school and are still at home, by directing their home reading and study; and to further the education of the parents in the home.
To help accomplish this the Bureau of Education co-operates with the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, with a view to reaching as many homes as possible. A series of bulletins on home educational problems have been prepared and parents desiring advice in child nurture and home making may receive it from the bureau.
As a basis for further work the home-education division has obtained a carefully selected list of women in all parts of the United States to co-operate in extension of opportunities to all parents for education in home making. County superintendents of schools were asked to furnish the names of women in their communities who could be depended upon for a certain amount of initiative and leadership. Through the efforts of the 1593 women thus secured and from other sources, the bureau has been furnished with nearly 40,000 names of mothers who feel the need of information on the care and home training of children, and it is with these 40,000 mothers that a beginning has been made.
The bulk of the requests are for help in the problems of home making and care of the children. The mothers ask the bureau to help in choosing literature, in reading courses for themselves and for their children. They ask for bulletins on "home matters;" material for home study for boys and girls; literature on moral training; books suitable to children who have completed the common school course; methods of bringing together the home and the school; suggestions for forming sewing and cooking classes, and information necessary for organizing parent-teachers' associations.

HANDICAPPED.
"I had nothing to do but enjoy myself."
This is the explanation given by a St. Louis youth of 20 years for failure in life. His father gave him all the spending money he could use. He had never done a stroke of work in his life. He had never earned a cent, says the Clinton Herald.
All he did was spend money, and clope with two women, separately, marrying the first and then deserting her. He is in jail in Chicago on account of the second elopement.
The name of the youth is Lester E. McDonald, but it might be anything else, for he isn't an individual, he is a type.
The boy who has all the money he can spend, who has nothing to do except enjoy himself, faces an awful handicap in this world. He is at a bigger disadvantage than the boy who starts his business career earning five cents a week by carrying washings for his mother.

COLONEL'S STAR IS WANING
The Springfield State Journal in an editorial of Friday, September 25th, has the following to say regarding the Roosevelt meeting in Springfield:
Colonel Roosevelt himself has added final confirmation to the oft-repeated verdict of the decline of the progressive movement in Illinois in his widely advertised meeting at the State Fair.
With the help of the State Fair attendance to swell the gathering and liberal advance mention of the occasion his presence filled the great state armory building to the doors with an audience of such proportions as formerly greeted him when he was the popular idol. Strange to relate, Colonel Roosevelt could not hold them as formerly he did.
When Roosevelt concluded his brief speech there were fewer than one half as many persons remaining as awaited his coming, and he finished with a vast array of empty chairs staring him in the face.
The only marked enthusiasm evident was on the stage, where a carefully picked audience of personal sympathizers was assembled.
During every minute of his address a constant stream of men and women straked out of the hall, evidencing, apparently, greater desire to witness the free show than to hear Roosevelt's masterly exposition of progressive principles. It was the most amazing exhibition ever witnessed in Springfield of the waning of popular interest in a former idol of the populace.

Painted Faces
By WALT MASON
Kind Nature gave my Cousin Mary a face that's a delight, with lips as red as any cherry, and brow of snowy white. Her cheeks resemble cream and roses — or so one poet wrote, when Mary's face and queenly poses had robbed him of his goat. She should be proud of her complexion, so radiant and rich, and yet she keeps a big collection of powders, paints and sich. And when she's fixed up for a killing, some Lochinvar to chase, blind men might see that she's been spilling such stuff upon her face. "Ah, Cousin Mary, you are silly," quite frequently I scold; "why should you try to paint the lily, or gild the perfect gold? Just leave your face as nature made it, and you'll be slick as cream, but all this dope you use will fade it, and make you look a scream. When you have reached the age of thirty, or maybe, thirty-three, your face will wrinkled be and dirty, a frightful thing to see." But what's the use? Ten million maidens are painting every day; they laugh to scorn our mild upbraiding's, and go their foolish way.

Y.M.C.A. PLAES
FOR THE SEASON ARE ANNOUNCED
forms of exercise at any time outside of Gymnasium class hours. A new equipment of one of the most interesting and invigorating games has been purchased. This game is volley ball and will be quite popular with the business men's class.
Wrestling will be taught in special class work and private lessons under the direction of Mr. Daniel C.
Wolfe, a young man who has made a record for himself and gives credit to the association as the place where he first learned his art. He will also in all possibility be loaned to the Sterling association for their classes in wrestling. Two times during the season Mr. Wolfe will have wrestling contests in the gymnasium between boys, intermediates and seniors to which the public will be welcome.
Swimming in winter is one of the rare treats, the heating plant for the large tank, 20 by 40 feet, has been changed and every morning the pool will be heated to 80 degrees, thereby assuring some fine swimming all winter. Special classes in diving, swimming, teaching all the strokes,
such as the English overarm, breast, side, sculling, treading, scissors kick,
alternate overarm.
One of the looked for features of the physical department will be the big circus which the committee hope to have in January.
Educational Work.
In the educational work the practical talks will be held about every two weeks, talks to the young men along such lines as follow: banking, accounting, business law, stocks and bonds, abstracts, etc. This work depends on a proper number entering the class to warrant the men teaching the same. First aid will be taught in lecture form by physicians at various times.
Social fetures such as bowling tournaments and teams will be pushed to the limit, the alleys were never in better shape. The specialist from the Brunswick-Balke-Collendar Co. spared no strength or energy in putting the beds of the alley in fast shape. Already the alleys are proving quite a social place. Stag suppers and feeds will be held during the winter.
Men's Club.
The program for the men's club is under construction and if the men that are now being corresponded with will answer in the affirmative, the club will have one of its best years. It is hoped that such will be the case.
Boys Activities.
This feature of the work as no other will be emphasized this year as the board of directors feel it is quite essential especially this year. The different groups of boys, as follows:
Beginners, boys from 10 to 12 will have their gymnasium days and hours in the swimming pool at different times from the boys 12 to 14 on account of the size of each division enjoying their work that much more. All boys however, under 14 years of age are not going to be permitted in the building after 6 in the evening as it is the thought of the board that boys under 14 years of age belong at home nights while they are in school. During the summer this rule is not enforced but from the first of October to June first it will be. Boys from 14 to 16, known as intermediates, have two evening class hours in the gymnasium and pool and one on Saturday afternoon. The evening classes are over so that any boys of this division will be home at 9 o'clock if such is his parents' desire.

THE NEW TAILORED SUITS ARE STUDIES IN SIMPLICITY

To be really smart, your tailored suit this year must be exquisitely simple.
Few trimmings are used because the materials themselves are trimming enough, and because such little trimming is used, is all the more reason why you should have the right bit of color, the right button for your suit.
Bischof tailored suits are marvels of style, and are ever so pretty because they are ever so simple.
Every garment is fitted on live models--this is why you can be so easily fitted in a Bischof coat or suit.
Don't put off seeing them a day longer. There is sure to be one garment among them, that was made just for you.

FIRST DISPLAY OF 1915 AUTOS

MAKERS AGAIN SELECT ST. LOUIS FOR AMERICAN DEBUT OF NEW MODELS.

SHOW VEILED PROPHET WEEK

Climatic Conditions Help Keep Great National Annual Event at St. Louis, Wishes of New York and Chicago Notwithstanding.

America's first display of 1915 models of automobiles will be at St. Louis Oct. 5 to 10, inclusive, Veiled Prophet Week. The New York and Chicago shows will trail along months later, as has been the case for several years.

This difference in time is perhaps mainly responsible for the nationwide interest that centers about the St. Louis autumn show. But the uniqueness of the setting likely also is a factor in the coast-to-coast and lakes-to-gulf interest, as probably is the centrality of St. Louis, where North, South, East and West meet, and which has been described as geographically the most central great city in the United States.

Forest Park Highlands, one of the city's largest and most popular summer gardens, where America's initial display of new models has been staged for several years, will be the scene of this, the eighth annual show. Under like its predecessors, will be under the auspices of the St. Louis Automobile Manufacturers and Dealers' Association.

Why Always at St. Louis?

"Why do New York and Chicago allow St. Louis to get ahead of them year after year in this way?" is a question frequently heard. It may be answered easily and without humiliating either of those cities, according to the show manager, Capt. Robert E. Lee, who also is editor of an automobile publication. They are hindered, he explains, by conditions that they cannot control, but that rest with the Ruler of the Universe. These conditions are climatic. The open fall and winter in the South and Southwest indicate to the automobile manufacturers a chance for a multitude of early sales. And so they hurry the new shapes to St. Louis and thus give the Southerners and Southwesterners an opportunity to compare the latest patterns of many manufacturers before buying, not a model of the season that is passing, but one of the season that yet is to begin to pass.

Whole Auto Industry Affected.

The St. Louis autumn show has practically changed the geography of the automobile industry. Largely as a result of it, the first consignments and shipments of 1915 models of all of the leading manufacturers are made to the South and Southwest. It also has meant the motorizing of this great section of the country and marvelous road improvement.

According to the advance announcements of the exhibitors, a large number of the cars shown will be of the enclosed-body style for fall, winter and early spring use. These will include the limousines, berlines, coupes, cabriolettes and town cars.

The accessories department of the show will contain all the latest motor accessories, automobile parts and smart automobile toggery. A full line of modish motoring coats, chic motoring hats and bonnets and bewitching veils will be displayed on manikins.

Cycle Cars a Feature.

The sensation of the show will be the display of the cycle-cars and voitures which are attracting the attention of automobilists and the public. Six different makes of these little cars, now represented in St. Louis, will be shown for the first time.

The Show Committee, in selecting the plan of decoration, has adhered strictly to the al fresco idea, as this is one of the distinctive features of the St. Louis Automobile Show and has been commended by manufacturers, dealers and visitors from every part of the United States, Canada and Europe. It is believed to show the cars off to better advantage than an indoor display. It affords a natural setting alike for the handsome pleasure motor vehicle or the rakish roadster. The ensemble is more pleasing and gives the prospective purchaser a more comprehensive picture of the car in actual use.

The Decoration Scheme.

The motif in the decoration this year will be a "Park Driveway." The large rotunda at the entrance will be transformed into a conventional landscape garden, with a large conventional flower bed of blooming plants. The east wall will be built of fissured or water-worn rocks, topped with a mass of autumn foliage; tiny streams of water will trickle down over the rocks, forming a spring at the base, around which will be growing aquatic plants. The ceilings, beams and wood work of the pavilions and theater will be covered with a mass of oak foliage, through which myriads of electric lights will wink and blink like stars.

The exhibitors' hall will be given Thursday evening, Oct. 8, in the big dance pavilion of the Highlands. Admission will be by card.

Do you need job printing? The Evening Telegraph office is equipped to do any work in that line.

Dramatic Notes

AT THE FAMILY.

"The Surprise of the Season," is the program title of a Duo of exceptional versatile artists at the Family theater for the four days commencing Thursday evening, October 1. The team is Dynes & VanEpps, two young fellows who can entertain in an original style with songs, dances, comedy chatter and piano specialties.

The novelty offering for this engagement will be "Dynamite," a comedy mule which, as per instructions from its manager, Miss Happy Harrison, gives an exhibition of comedy antics that create a laugh a second.

A pictorial treat in the film department will complete the entertainment.

Pictures tonight are: The Question and Answer Man; The Lad from Old Ireland; The Gypsy Tallisman.

OPERA HOUSE.

For this evening's program we have another of those feasts in pictures. "Little Meg and I" is a Victor drama with J. Warren Kerrigan. It is taken from the poem by C. H. Murphy. Meg and Jack are youthful lovers in a fishing village on the Gloucester coast. Meg's father is a wealthy ship owner, while Jack is a poor fisherman's son. Meg's father forbids her to see Jack again and bribes, threats and coaxes her into marrying a wealthy man of his own age. Meg and her elderly husband start on a trip abroad, the liner is wrecked in a terrific storm off the Gloucester coast and little Meg is washed into Jack's arms, drowned.

"The Danger Line" a Nestor drama is the story of a country girl who runs away from home and is lured away by the ever watchful white slaver; she escapes and is taken to a mission by a derelict of the streets who was formerly saved by the same good people.

Animated Weekly of up-to-the-minute current events.

"The New Cook," a Universal like comedy. They are always funny.

Anyone missing the "Redemption" next Saturday will surely regret it as it is one of the greatest pictures ever produced.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Jailbird.

The period of restraint in duration suffered by one Thomas Barcus in consequence of conduct riotous, unseemly, and in general prejudicial to the public peace of the New Bedford waterfront at half-past four in the morning, proved in the upshot far more brief than had been fondly hoped, not only by his just judge, but, singularly enough, by the misadventurous himself.

Taking everything gravely into consideration, including a person anything but prepossessing, the judge reckoned that, in default of a fine of one hundred dollars, a ten-day layup for repairs and repentance was not too much to mete out to the prisoner at the bar.

He was sentenced at 10 a. m. and it was little short of 10 p. m. when his post-prandial repose was disturbed by the rattle of a key in the lock of the door to his cell.

Sitting up, Mr. Barcus rubbed his eyes and combed his hair with his fingers.

"What did I tell you?" he observed resignedly. "It begins again already."

Conducted with every evidence of disesteem on the part of his jailers to the office of the warden, he was acquainted with the fact that his fine had been paid by no one less than the judge himself; then present in portly and solicitous person.

"If only you had told me you were a friend of Mr. Digby's," the judge hastened to say as soon as the two were ensconced in the privacy of the judicial limousine. "I would have known better how to guide myself in this unfortunate affair."

"And if you will be good enough to indicate how else I may serve you in my wire, I gather?"

"One moment: I have it here."

"Naturally I'd like a bath and a change of clothes," Barcus pursued while the judicial breast-pocket was being explored; "and I could do with transportation to New York by the first train out of this God-forsaken hole, and—"

"This is what Mr. Digby says," the judge interrupted, laboriously deciphering the message by the light of a match. "Please see to immediate release of one Thomas Barcus, probably in jail in your jurisdiction for rioting on waterfront this morning. Pay his fine and instruct him to report to me in New York at earliest feasible hour. Give him all the money he wants and look to me for remuneration—"

"Eh?" Barcus interrupted, sitting up smartly; "what's that last again?"

Patiently the judge repeated the sentence from the message.

"Thanks. Please don't read farther. You might come to something that would spoil it. It's almost too beautiful as it stands," Barcus observed. "Law owes me five thousand or so liquidated damages—but I'll be reasonable. Frisk this burg for a fifth of that sum before train time—and I promise to ask nothing more!"

His private comment was: "I've suspected that this was a fairy-tale all along. Now I know it is!"

And this phase of incredulity persisted in coloring the complexion of his mind until, the moment, some hours later, when the train connecting at Providence with the Midnight Express for New York pulled out of New Bedford bearing a transformed Barcus—almost impenetrably disguised in a bath, a shave and a haircut, an outfit of clothing originally tailored for a gentleman of discriminating taste, but no whit less disguised in the sense of affluence that goes with the possession of one thousand dollars in cash.

Not until a sound night's sleep had topped off the beginning of his rest in jail did Barcus come down to earth. He demonstrated his return to common sense by making a round breakfast in Grand Central station before looking up the residence of Digby in the telephone directory.

The information he gathered from the voice that answered the name of Mr. Digby over the telephone shook only momentarily Barcus' innate conviction that intimate acquaintance with battle, murder and sudden death was the inevitable reward of association with this friend of his heart.

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water salts and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life-saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

PARADE AND RACES ON MISSISSIPPI

AT ST. LOUIS SUNDAY TO OFFICIALLY CLOSE VEILED PROPHET WEEK.

TORPEDO BOAT WILL ATTEND

Chairman Butler Invites All Boat Owners to Join in Making Parade Greatest in History of "Father of Waters."

The crowning event of Veiled Prophet Week at St. Louis will be a river meet the afternoon of Sunday, October 11, on the Mississippi, including a parade of several hundred decorated power boats, and, afterward, speed-boat and rowing races.

A balloon piloted by H. E. Honeywell of St. Louis, an aeronaut of international reputation, will rise from the river as a signal to the multitudes which presumably will be assembled along the shore, when the head of the parade starts north from the Free Bridge. This feature has been arranged by the Aero Club of St. Louis.

Other features for the free entertainment of the public will include a life-saving exhibition, under the auspices of the Missouri Athletic Association.

Parade in Three Divisions.

The parade is to be in three divisions, commanded, the first by Col. C. C. Butler, who, besides being chairman of the River Parade Committee, is commodore of the St. Louis Yacht Club and a member of Governor Major's official staff; the second by Dr. E. M. Whitsett, commodore of the Carondelet Motor Boat Club, and the third by Otto Larson, commodore of the South Side Motor Boat Club.

An invitation to serve on the committee of judges has been extended to the officers of the United States torpedo boat Somers, which the Navy Department has ordered to St. Louis for the week's festivities and especially the river events.

Open to All Boat Owners.

The River Parade Committee has mailed to river clubs from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico the following communication:

To All Boat Owners:

"The parade of decorated river craft, and the speed-boat and rowing races immediately following it, will take place the afternoon of Sunday, Oct. 11, 1914, and jointly will constitute the grand finale of Veiled Prophet Week. The Navy Department will be represented by the United States Torpedo Boat Somers. St. Louis, the home of more boat owners than live in any other city on the Mississippi river, would seem the logical point for the greatest parade in the history of that river and such we hope this parade will prove.

"Open, absolutely without cost, to all boat owners, whether affiliated with any club or not and whether residing at St. Louis, Chicago, New Orleans or any other Mississippi Valley city, the parade will be representative, not only of St. Louis, but also of the Mississippi Valley. Flags and bunting with which to decorate will be provided gratis by the Business Men's League of St. Louis, and many valuable prizes, both club and individual, will be offered by St. Louis business concerns.

Starts at 2 P. M. Sharp.

"The parade will start north at 2 p. m., sharp, from the Free Bridge, all boats entering the line in numerical order, each in accord with the number assigned to it, and each maintaining its proper position throughout the parade. The judges will award the prizes by number. The parading boats will turn at McKinley Bridge and move downstream, still in numerical order, to the starting point (Free Bridge), where they will disband, those wishing to view the races to anchor north of that bridge, on the Illinois side.

"Rowing races downstream between the Eads Bridge and the Free Bridge will start immediately after the rear end of the parade on the upstream trip passes the Eads Bridge.

"All those desiring to enter the parade should mail at once to the River Parade Committee, American Hotel, St. Louis, their name and address and the size and style of their boat. Each will be duly advised at which of the several river clubs to apply for the package containing the decorations apportioned him.

Back to Nature.

"Those desiring further particulars as to the speed-boat races should communicate with Dr. Max C. Starkloff, chairman of the Speed-Boat Race Committee, 7619 South Broadway, St. Louis. The Rowing Race Committee may be communicated with in care of the American Hotel.

"Hoping for your earnest cooperation in the effort to make this parade the most brilliant ever held on the Mississippi, the great 'Father of Waters,' whose magnitude and usefulness the Indians perhaps appreciated better than do most of us of the twentieth century, many of whom have allowed ourselves to drift away from nature into a maze of artificiality, believe us to be,

"Yours very truly,
"RIVER PARADE COMMITTEE,
"By C. C. Butler, Chairman."

WEEK BY WEEK

EACH WEEK APPEAR THE STATEMENTS OF DIXON RESIDENTS.

Last week it was a Dixon citizen who spoke. The week before it was a Dixon citizen who spoke. The week before and for many weeks before it was a Dixon citizen who spoke. And again this week it is a Dixon man, you are not asked to act upon the word of a stranger. The best guidance that is humanly possible to give you—the encouraging word of neighbors, is always given.

W. Walford, blacksmith, 843 W. Walnut Ave., Dixon, says: "I had quite a little trouble from my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and when I stooped I had pain across my loins. My back often ached. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they made me well. The pains left and the action of my kidneys was regulated."

Mr. Walford is only one of many Dixon people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Walford had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. RUSS PUSHING
POLAND FIGHT

Gen. Rennenkampf's Army Re-occupies Augustowo.

GERMAN ARMY IS IN RETREAT

Russian Official Statement Indicates Kaiser's Forces Are Leaving Province of Suwalki--Fighting Intense--Russian Civil Government Established at Lemberg, Ia Report.

telegraphs the Rome correspondent of the Evening News, "The Italian government has instructed its ambassador at Vienna to enter an energetic protest against the mines, which prevent free and safe navigation of the Adriatic."

Germans Admit Repulse.

London, Oct. 1.—A dispatch from Berlin says the German general staff announces that the German army operating against the forts on the Meuse was repulsed and the French had made a new assault along the line from Verdun to Toul.

London, Oct. 1.—An official statement issued by the Russian war office announces that General Rennenkampf's army has re-occupied Augustowo, in Russian Poland, after extremely severe fighting with the Germans.

This information is held to certify to the retreat of the German army of General Von Hindenburg from the province of Suwalki, as a result of the battle which has been raging since Sunday morning along a front extending from Grodno to Drusentki on the Niemen river.

Augustowo is in Suwalki in Russian Poland, 140 miles north of east of Warsaw. The Augustowo canal connects there, connecting the Vistula river with the Niemen.

Fighting Intense.

The fighting around Augustowo has been exceptionally intense for several days. The Germans occupied the town which is a short distance from the Russo-West Prussian frontier, about two weeks ago and General Rennenkampf has been marshalling his forces in the forests surrounding the town in preparation for a supreme effort.

Dispatches arriving here from various Russian embassies indicate that the Russian successes along the entire battle front from East Prussia to Galicia have been uninterrupted during the past two days. A fresh attempt, and a violent one, by the Germans to cross the Niemen river has been repulsed and at various points Von Hindenburg's forces have been pushed back across the frontier, although their retirement has been of the stubborn character that has marked all of their operations.

Fierce Battle at Tarnow.

The battle at Tarnow, forty-eight miles east of Cracow and an important railroad center, continues. Both sides have suffered tremendous losses but it is believed that the Austrians must soon succumb as the Russians are in superior forces and have a high morale, fostered by a succession of victories.

Russ Government at Lemberg.

Reports from Lemberg tell of the installation there of complete Russian civil government.

The Bingham Author.

"When do you expect to finish your novel, 'The Violet Vagaries of Virginia'?" the small town literary man was asked.

"I don't know," he replied, with a moving sigh. "It depends entirely upon when I can finish the resolutions on the death of Brother John Jones for the Curious Fellows, the Scarlet Men, the Knights of Soxalexis and the Order of Raccoons, the thesis on 'The Significance of the Presence of Heat Waves at the Equator' for the valedictorian of the class of '09 at the Female High School, the composition of 'Doughnuts' for my wife's little cousin in the fourth grade, the paper on 'Belles-Lettres as a Field for Tobacco-Growers' to be read at the annual meeting of the Siwash County Burley Planters' Association, and the limerick poem, 'By the Saffron Hoang-Ho the Pig-tails Wait in Darkness,' to be read before the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. When I have finished with these, I hope to get to work for myself."

Practice Makes Perfect.

Ethel's father would not be described even by those most intimate with his many good points, as a handsome man. The Apollo Belvedere had nothing to fear from him in a beauty contest. His homeliness was the matter of jesting remarks recently and the little girl took it all in.

"Papa," she asked the next day, "God made you, didn't he?"

"Yes, dear," replied her father. "And did He make me, too?" she questioned father.

"Certainly," was the reply, as he turned back to his book.

"Well," commenced Ethel, as she looked in the mirror, "I guess He is doing better work now!"

Bavarian King's Son Wounded.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—According to the Lokal Anzeiger, Prince Franz, son of the king of Bavaria, who has the rank of major general and is in command of the second Bavarian regiment, has been slightly wounded in the thigh. He is now on his way to Munich.
